

Developmental Competence

- Age is the most important determinant of a child's memory capacity
- Age and developmental abilities influence the perception of an experience
- Remembering an experience does not mean it can be expressed

Peripheral details
of times
How
When Where
What Who
	Age 3	Age 4	Age 5-6	Age 7-8	Age 9-10	Age 11-15